

Mr. Elí Sepúlveda, Jr.
Executive Vice President Commercial Credit
Banco Popular de Puerto Rico

Eli Sepúlveda, Jr. is Executive Vice President of the Commercial Banking Group of Banco Popular de Puerto Rico and the United States since January of 2010.

Sepúlveda joined Banco Popular in 1986 as Management Associate. From 1986 to 1992 he worked in important projects for the Bank. In 1993 he was named Manager of Hato Rey CBC and in 1995 he held the position of Regional Manager from the Arecibo/ Manatí region. During 1999 he became the Regional Manager of Bayamon's region, and in 2001 he returned to the previous position as Regional Manager of the Arecibo/Manatí region. In 2004 he was named President of Popular Auto. As part of his responsibilities, Sepúlveda oversaw everything related to lease and financing of cars, marine lending, commercial lease and indirect financing. In June 2008 he was appointed Senior Vice President of the Commercial Banking Division where he was in charge of a $6.5 billion portfolio.

Sepúlveda graduated from University of Puerto Rico in 1985 with a Bachelor of Accounting and Finance, and later pursued graduate studies in Banking at Wisconsin University.