Dear Members of the Chamber of Commerce of Puerto Rico:

I am so proud to be chairing the E4 Summit of the Americas 2012 during Pablo Figueroa's presidency. We have created an innovative Summit with first class speakers who will share with you their expertise as their studies. In this E4 Summit we will be discussing four key pillars for the proposed formula for achieving local and global competitiveness: Economy + Education + Entrepreneurship + Exports = Competitiveness.

With a strong representation of women in the business world, we will have Dr. Irene Mia from the Economist Intelligence Unit and Hon. Louise Léger, General Counsel of Canada with their goals for Latin America. We are also honored to have Dr. Francisco Montalvo Fiol from Puerto Rico 2000, Dr. Rafael Bras from Georgia Institute of Technology and José Carrión, principal partner of Carrión Laffitte Casellas Insurance. As our Luncheon Speaker, we will have Hon. Kenneth McClintock, a statesman who believes in entrepreneurship and education for all in Puerto Rico.

With this great pool of entrepreneurs, we are sure your take home value will be priceless.

I am looking forward to seeing you there and interchanging ideas with you personally.

Cordially,

Rosana M. Roig
Chairperson, E-4 Summit of the Americas 2012
