No Crystal Ball Needed: Keeping American Safe & Open

As new cases of COVID-19 surge and America prepares for the next wave of the pandemic, join the U.S. Chamber this Thursday, October 29 at 2:00 pm ET, for “No Crystal Ball Needed: Keeping America Safe & Open,” an urgent discussion to rally, inform, and arm business leaders to lead the charge in their respective communities.

We will discuss lessons learned from Europe as well as communities across the U.S. that have successfully adapted their government and business models to meet the challenge of the pandemic. The U.S. Chamber will also share best practices for slowing the spread, while helping businesses remain operational and keep their customers and employees safe.
