Washington Must Step Up for the Economy

Top Chamber leaders took to the airwaves, advocating for additional pandemic relief.

- Last Friday on Fox Business Network, Chamber President Suzanne Clark spoke of the importance of Congress passing additional pandemic relief this year and passing major infrastructure legislation next year.
- U.S. Chamber CEO Tom Donohue talked to CNBC's Closing Bell about the importance of Congress passing pandemic relief legislation, saying, "The sooner it's done, the better for the beneficiaries of the stimulus and better for the markets and the economy."
