

Speaker Lineup Announced for State of American Business 2021

We're thrilled to announce an extraordinary lineup of speakers and special guests for next week's State of American Business event on Tuesday, Jan. 12.

Details: In addition to Chamber CEO Tom Donohue's annual address, Chamber President Suzanne Clark will lead a conversation with Uber CEO Dara Khosrowshahi, Edward Jones Investments Managing Partner Penny Pennington, and 3M Chairman and CEO Mike Roman on the emerging issues and forces reshaping business and work in America.

The Chamber's Chief Policy Officer Neil Bradley will moderate a panel with ADP Senior Vice President and Chief Economist Nela Richardson, Rep. Abigail Spanberger (D-VA), and Rep. John M. Katko (R- NY) on our nation's pressing economic challenges and the path to a widespread recovery.

NEW: We are expanding Tuesday's program to examine the important role business plays in our democracy and our society, with a panel led by our affiliate organization, the Center for International Private Enterprise (CIPE).

Join the more than 10,000 business leaders from across the country and around the world who have already registered to attend.

Register