

Back to Business: Introducing Rep. Peter Meijer

A new Congress brings new faces to Washington, D.C. The Chamber launched the Back to Business series to introduce new Members of Congress to the business community and begin conversations about how we can work together to get our country back to health and our economy working for everyone.

In the first event Chamber President and CEO-Elect Suzanne Clark joined Rick Baker, President and CEO of the Grand Rapids Area Chamber of Commerce, in a conversation with Rep. Peter Meijer (R-MI).

Key takeaways from Rep. Meijer:

- Jobs matter: “To a family, to an individual, [a job] is a sense of agency, of self-determination, of being able to strike out and provide within a community.”
- Looking long-term: “One thing our government need less of is folks who are only prioritizing what’s in the best short-term, electoral interests, rather than what’s truly needed for our long-term governance as a nation.”
