

Workforce Action Report: KeyBank Provides More Than $1 Million to Fill Demand for First Responders

Today's spotlight: KeyBank and Cuyahoga Community College public safety training program in Northeast Ohio

Innovation in action: The U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation's Talent Finance initiative develops private sector-led solutions to financing and investing in our country's talent. KeyBank and Cuyahoga Community College's (Tri-C®) public safety training program is an example of an innovative approach to filling the regional demand for first responders. KeyBank awarded the College $1.4 million to enhance and expand public safety education and training programs, particularly for underrepresented groups in the field. More than 1,000 Tri-C students have received KeyBank scholarships to pursue their dream career. Learn more about their story.

Dig deeper:

- To partner with us and learn how you can develop innovative ways for your company to invest in people and skills, email Sarah Castro at scastro@uschamber.com.

Watch