

María del C. Betancourt

Profile

Maria del C. Betancourt is currently Senior Director, Market HR Support for Latin America, Africa and United Kingdom as part of the International People Division supporting over 24 countries and 360,000 associates. She joined Walmart in 2009 as a Labor Law attorney in the legal Division in Puerto Rico. She was then promoted to Senior Director for Human Resources in Puerto Rico leading the local talent development, total rewards and associate relations teams supporting all formats, local home office and logistics teams with over 15,000 associates, while leading the alignment efforts from International to the Domestic Business.

Before joining Walmart, Maria was part of the Puerto Rico government's Executive Branch as President of the Human Resources Appeal Commission for the Public Service, headed Human Resources for the PR Treasury Department, and worked at the PR Department of Justice as well as in various law firms. In addition, she has served as advisor for the Puerto Rico Women Resource Council chapter, as Board Member of the American Red Cross for PR and Virgin Islands, the Women Who Lead board of advisors, and is currently a Board Member of the American Red Cross for Northwest Arkansas, among other community activities involvement.

Maria holds a Bachelor degree in Business Administration with a major in Computerized Information Systems and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Puerto Rico. She is admitted to the Puerto Rico and Federal Bar, and is a Certified Mediator by the Puerto Rico Supreme Court. Family is the center of her life, she is married to Rafael del Valle and has two amazing children.