

Dr. Steven G. Ullmann

Director of Programs and the Center for Research in Health Sector Management and Policy, School of Business Administration, University of Miami

Dr. Ullmann is also a Professor in the Departments of Management and Economics in the School of Business Administration, and a Professor in the Departments of Epidemiology & Public Health and Family Medicine & Community Health, in the Miller School of Medicine, specializing in the areas of health care management and health care economics. He has also served as Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs and University Administration, Dean of the Graduate School and Director of Academic Programs in Health Administration.

He has been on the faculty at the University of Miami since 1979 and previously served as a research associate with two consulting firms. Dr. Ullmann holds a Bachelor's Degree with honors in Economics from the University of California, Berkeley, and his Masters and Ph.D. degrees in Economics from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. He has also received training and certification in Bioethics and Advanced Bioethics from the Kennedy Institute of Ethics at Georgetown University.

Dr. Ullmann has been the recipient of twenty-five awards for excellence in teaching since coming to the University of Miami. He has served on governing boards and ethics boards of a number of health care providers and has served as a consultant to the health care industry. With the recent issues of healthcare reform, Dr. Ullmann's expertise has been sought after for interview, commentaries and panel discussions by various local and national media sources including: CNN, Nightly Business Reports, CBS, Fox Business News and The Miami Herald.