

Prof. Humberto Malavé Núñez

Prof. Malavé is a full professor at the University of Puerto Rico in Cayey- Business Administration Department. Currently serves as a Special Assistant to the Chancellor –Innovation and Entrepreneurship. His educational experience started at KPMG Peat Marwick as an auditor of colleges and universities. He began his career at the UPR as an Associate and Acting Director of the Finance Office at the Central Administration. He also served as an Associate Director of the Puerto Rico Council of Higher Education. He is an educational consultant in the areas social entrepreneurship as a mean of economic development.