

PUERTO RICO CONFERENCE

2012 | Revitalizing Innovation

Mr. Raúl Cacho
President
Acrecent Financial

Raúl Cacho is Co-Founder and President of Acrecent Financial Corporation, a firm known for innovation in commercial finance and a leader in equipment leasing and accounts receivable based financing. Acrecent is primarily engaged in business in Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic and the US Virgin Islands.

Raúl has over 22 years of experience in the commercial banking industry, leasing, and investments. He has responsibility over credit underwriting, risk management, finance and accounting, operations and management. Raúl is held this position for the last 8 years.

Prior to Acrecent, he spent 12 years with Banco Popular de Puerto Rico, where he last held the position of Vice-President and Manager of the Structured Finance Division. Raul was also a member of Banco Popular's Executive Credit Committee and Senior Administrative Committee, and managed all of the lending operations of the bank's New York office. He led his team in building a corporate finance portfolio of over $1 billion in assets.

Before that, Raúl was with Banco de Ponce where he started as a Management Trainee and worked in Investments and Commercial Credit.

Raúl has a Bachelors of Science degree from Babson College with a double major in Finance and Quantitative Methods and has two amazing daughters.